Contributing more: Improving the role of business in recovery

11 April 2016 Resilient New Zealand

Reports

This report draws on the experiences of those involved in the Canterbury earthquakes. It explores the way in which the different capabilities, expertise and resources of businesses can be used to improve the resilience of our communities and better enable them to recovery from disaster.

We have an opportunity for businesses to identify their own strengths and the contributions they can make in the event of a disaster.
